

Brantford Public Library: Institution Card

What is it?

Institution cards are intended to provide staff members of local organizations with access to the Brantford Public Library's resources and collections, in support of their work.

An Institution Card is available for organizations within the City of Brantford, including:

- Licensed Day Cares and Preschools
- Elementary or Secondary Schools
- Rest Homes, Hospitals and Churches
- Non-profit Organizations.

Each staff member of an organization who submits a completed application will receive a card. At this time, we are not accepting applications from organizations outside the City of Brantford.

How does it work?

With this card, there is an extended loan period of 6 weeks and a check-out limit of 50 items at a time. Brantford Public Library no longer charges late fees but organizations will be charged replacement fees for unreturned or damaged items. When visiting the library, the card must be presented in order to borrow materials.

Items that cannot be checked out on this card include:

- Bestsellers
- Videogames
- Interlibrary loans

The card is intended to support organizations in their work; if it appears that a card is being used for personal use, rather than professional, borrowing privileges may be affected.

How to apply for a card?

The borrower fills out an application form, and has it approved by the organization's Designated Officer. A Designated Officer must be a Principal, Vice-Principal, Manager, Director, or equivalent. Completed application forms can then be submitted:

- in person at the Main Library (173 Colborne St.) or the St. Paul Avenue Branch (441 St. Paul Ave.)
- by email to vcampione@brantfordlibrary.ca; or,
- by fax to 519-756-4979, to the attention of Valeria Campione, Children's and Youth Library Technician

Approved applicants will be notified and must pick up their card in person at the Main Library.

All institution cards will expire annually at the end of August. Organizations will be reminded of the expiration and sent a renewal form. The renewal form can be submitted in person at one of library's locations, emailed to vcampione@brantfordlibrary.ca, or faxed to 519-756-4979, to the attention Valeria Campione.

Deposit Collections

Deposit Collections are a collection of library materials delivered to community sites. These collections can be used to supplement your classroom or school's library materials. The library would offer each card holder up to 50 preselected items delivered and picked up from your institution or have a card holder pick them up at the Main Library. Upon registering, the card holder will let the library know areas of interest, including age ranges; currently, we are only offering books.

These collections will be rotated on a monthly basis (or predetermined time).

December 2021

Card holders will be responsible for gathering materials and packaging them for return.
